

Pinfold Street Primary School is looking to appoint a caring and friendly lunchtime supervisor to join our strong team. The ideal candidate should be enthusiastic, highly motivated and enjoy working with young children. We have very active and enjoyable lunchtimes. There are a variety of themed areas for the children to explore and enjoy during their free time including an ECO area with a small farm. We actively encourage the children to learn new skills through play, with our lunchtime staff. Our lunchtime staff are expected to guide and encourage the children to follow all our school rules. We encourage all staff to communicate with each other and senior members of staff to ensure the safe and smooth running of lunchtimes.

You will be responsible for supervising children across the school at lunchtime, in the dining hall, classrooms and on the playground.

Please see job description and person specification for further information.

Hours per day: 1 hour 15 minutes per day - times to be agreed.
Monday to Friday term time only

Application packs can either be downloaded from the school website, a copy forwarded to you by contacting Sue Harper 0121 568 6366, or via e-mail:- sharper@pinfold-st.walsall.sch.uk
Completed forms should be returned to the school by the closing date.
